

First Bochum-Rutgers-Workshop in Philosophy

“Recent Developments in Philosophy of Mind & Language”

Scientific Organization: Albert Newen & Brian McLaughlin

October 14-15, 2016

New York & New Brunswick

Friday 14th October, 2016

Venue: New York, German Embassy

- 9.15 – 10.20 Frances Egan (Rutgers): Function-Theoretic Explanation and the Search for Neural Mechanisms
- 10.20 – 10.50 Joulia Smortchkova (Bochum): Nonconceptualism and developmental psychology
- 10.50 – 11.15 Coffee
- 11.15 – 12.20 Katja Crone (Dortmund): Limits of plural self-awareness
- 12.20 – 13.30 Lunch
- 13.30 – 14.35 Albert Newen (Bochum): Concepts as Templates of Mental Files: Unifying embodied and truth-conditional semantics
- 14.35 – 15.05 Peter Brössel (Bochum): On How to Learn Words and Acquire Concepts
- 15.05 – 15.35 Sam Carter (Rutgers): Vagueness without Sorites Susceptibility
- 15.35 – 16.00 Coffee
- 16.00 – 17.05 Robert Matthews (Rutgers): A Reductio of the Putnam/Searle Arguments against Computationalism
- 17.05 – 18.10 Markus Werning (Bochum): Making Quotation Transparent: A Compositional Analysis of an Allegedly Opaque Phenomenon

Dinner: 18.15 – 21.15 in New York

➔ Change to Rutgers by train

Saturday 15th October, 2016

Venue: Rutgers University, New Brunswick

- 9.15 – 10.20 Brian McLaughlin (Rutgers): Geometrical Misperception
- 10.20 – 10.50 N.N.
- 10.50 – 11.15 Coffee
- 11.15 – 12.45 Simon Goldstein (Rutgers): The T-Schema without Bivalence
- 12.45 – 13.15 Viviana Haase (Bochum): Negation in Language and Cognition: philosophical and experimental perspectives
- 13.15 – 14.00 Lunch (Sandwiches)
- 14.00 – 15.05 Susanna Schellenberg (Rutgers): Perceptual Consciousness as a Mental Activity
- 15.05 – 16.10 Tobias Schlicht (Bochum): Social Perception